DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 12-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are considered vague and indefinite for the following reasons:

- (a) Claims 12-15 depend from cancelled claim 10.
- (b) Claims 16-18 depend from cancelled claim 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 3-8 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Landis (U.S. 5,294,015). Landis teaches an arrangement comprising an open-ended container 22 and closure 20 therefor. The container comprises at least one projection 46 extending at least partially around its outer surface adjacent the rim 26 of its open, upper end. The closure comprises a cover 30 for extending over the open upper end and a skirt 38 depending therefrom having an upper portion at lead line 74 and a lower portion below hinge line 61. The lower portion could also be considered the portion extending at and below projections 48. The lower portion of the skirt may be flipped between a raised configuration, shown in figure 6, for mounting and removal of the cover on the container and a lowered configuration, shown in figure 7, in which it engages with the projection of the container thereby to retain the cover on the container. The whole of the lower portion of the skirt is divided into at least two discrete peripheral sections, seven are shown in the drawings, that may be flipped between the raised and lowered configurations independently of each other, as discussed in col. 8 line 55 through col. 9 line 37. The channel is shown at 40. The inwardly directed projection is shown at 48 which engages with 46, as shown in figure 11. The slits are formed after initial tearing of the frangible lines 64, as discussed in col. 9 lines 18-37.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed August 17, 2011 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argues that Landis does not teach that "the skirt include at least one inwardly directed projection dividing the upper and lower portions". The Examiner disagrees with this position. Landis teaches a skirt 38 which can be divided into an upper portion and a lower portion. In fact, the skirt 38 of Landis can be divided into three portions. The upper portion of the skirt is the portion above the hinge line at lead line 60, the lower portion of the skirt is the portion below the projection at lead line 48, and the intermediate dividing section of the skirt is the section that extends from the hinge at 60 to and including the projection at lead line 48. With this interpretation of the Landis skirt, the closure assembly of Landis meets the limitations of the claims.

7. Applicant argues that Landis does not teach the annular channel. The Examiner disagrees with this position. Landis teaches a channel bounded by skirt 38 and wall 36. This channel receives the rim of the container, and the channel is located laterally between the upper portion of the skirt and the cover.

The channel extends from the wall at lead line 54 to the lower edge of the wall 36. Even with the gasket, the channel receives the rim of the container.

8. The new grounds of rejection, under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, was necessitated by the amendment filed August 17, 2011.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
